This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE GROTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

THE Groton Public Library was established in the year 1854, and started at the suggestion of the Honorable Abbott Lawrence, who offered to give the sum of five hundred dollars for that purpose, on condition the town would appropriate the same amount. The following letters, found among the papers of Mr. Lawrence after his death, and now among the manuscripts of the Boston Public Library, are connected with its history, and have a local interest. They tell their own story, and need no further introduction from me. The first letter is in Mr. Butler's handwriting, and, from the style, evidently his composition.

GROTON, February 13, 1854.

HONORED SIR, —

Your communication of the 3d instant, in relation to establishing a town library in the place of your nativity, has been received and considered.

Knowledge and virtue generally diffused among the mass of the people, are elements necessary to the support and maintenance of our New England institutions, civil, moral, ecclesiastical, and social. Books are the customary vehicles of conveying knowledge to the mind. Hence, in order to perpetuate the institutions, privileges and advantages of which we find ourselves in the possession, to improve, enlarge and transmit them to generations yet to come, in purity, books best adapted to the purpose should be made accessible to all, and all should be encouraged to use and improve them. Indeed, if a well-selected public library could effect nothing more than to divert the minds of youth from the mischievous products of morbid imaginations, which at present load the shelves and counters of our bookshops, and to give a taste for truthful history, biography, morality and science, as in progress they might be able to comprehend, an invaluable object would be obtained by it.

Individually entertaining these views on the subject, your generous proposal cannot but be to us otherwise than most acceptable; and we hope and trust that a majority at least of our fellow townsmen entertaining the same or similar views, will accept your munificence, and in good faith fulfil the conditions you have annexed. The earliest opportunity shall be embraced to lay the matter before the people in their municipal capacity, and of the result you shall be duly apprised.

We deem the present inhabitants of Groton very fortunate in having contemporary natives of the place so abundantly able and so generously disposed to afford them the means and facilities of acquiring useful knowledge themselves, and of educating the generations which are to follow.

With sentiments of high esteem and of grateful acknowledgments for your beneficent offer, we subscribe ourselves your most obedient and humble servants,

GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
JOHN BOYNTON,
NOAH SHATTUCK,
CALEB BUTLER,
JOSHUA GREEN.

Hon. ABBOTT LAWRENCE.

GROTON, March 13, 1854.

SIR, —

I have the honor, in pursuance of the unanimous vote of the inhabitants of Groton, to enclose a copy of the proceedings in relation to your proposition for a public library in this town.

I am, with much respect,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN W. PARKER,
Town Clerk.

To the Honorable ABBOTT LAWRENCE, Boston.

IN TOWN MEETING, GROTON, March 6, 1854.

Whereas, the Honorable Abbott Lawrence has generously proposed to present to this town the sum of five hundred dollars for the purpose of establishing a public library, and whereas it is believed that such an institution will be of eminent advantage to this and succeeding generations: therefore —

Resolved, That the cordial thanks of the inhabitants of Groton be presented to the Honorable Abbott Lawrence for his liberal proposition in aid of the cause of education and good morals.

Resolved, That the Town Clerk furnish Mr. Lawrence with a copy of the proceedings of the town.

IN TOWN MEETING, GROTON, March 6, 1854.

Resolved, That George S. Boutwell, George F. Farley, Joshua Green, David Fosdick, and John Boynton, be a committee with authority to appropriate the sum of five hundred dollars, if they see fit, for the foundation of a public library, for the benefit of all the inhabitants of the town.

Resolved, That said library be subject to such rules and regulations as the town may from time to time establish, not contrary to the Laws of the Commonwealth.

Resolved, That said committee confer with Mr. Lawrence in relation to his proposed donation, to the selection of books, and to such other matters as may be for the interest of the library; and that said committee be authorized to expend the money appropriated to this object, to procure a suitable room for the accommodation of the library, and also to prepare and present to the town such by-laws as they may deem necessary for the government of said library.

GROTON, April 17, 1855.

Honorable ABBOTT LAWRENCE, —

SIR, — Agreeably to your generous proposition of February 3, 1854, to present to the town of Groton the sum of five hundred dollars, to establish and maintain a public library, upon condition that the town shall raise a like sum for the same purpose, the undersigned have the pleasure to inform you that the town unanimously voted to accept the condition, and appropriated five hundred dollars for that object. This sum has now been expended, and the library nearly completed. The committee, therefore, take the liberty to draw on you for five hundred dollars; and they have no doubt that the town will accept your further proposition, "that at any time within three years from this date, I [you] will pay another sum of five hundred dollars, upon condition that the town raise the same amount, to be applied to the purchase of books for the said library."

With great respect and esteem,

Your obedient servants,

GEO. F. FARLEY,
GEO. S. BOUTWELL,
JOSHUA GREEN,
} Committee on the Library of the Town.

Mr. Lawrence's death took place on August 18th, 1855, — a few months after the date of this letter, — which event prevented the town from accepting his second offer of another sum of the same amount, under a similar condition.

The library now contains more than 4,000 volumes, and circulates annually not far from 10,000 books. Its first catalogue was printed in the year 1855, a second appeared in 1862, and the last in 1875.

The late Willard Dalrymple, Esq., of Charlestown, is another man who did not forget the place of his birth. He died on July 26th, 1884, and a clause in his will reads as follows: —

To my native Town of Groton aforesaid, I give the sum of four thousand (4,000) dollars, to be known as the "Dalrymple Fund," of which the income only of two thousand (2,000) dollars shall be applied to the purchase of books for its public library, and the income only of two thousand (2.000) dollars shall be applied, under the direction of the Overseers of the Poor of said town, to the treatment of worthy American citizens of said town, suffering from disease of, or of injury to the eye.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

1. It shall be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to twelve, A. M., and from one to five, P. M., and Saturday evenings from six to eight, for delivery and return of books; except that no books shall be delivered on the Saturday next preceding the first Monday in April, annually. The Librarian, however, in his discretion, may deliver books at other times, not inconsistent with these regulations.

2. Every inhabitant of Groton, liable to taxation, shall have a right to take from the Library one volume at a time, and all other persons over twelve years of age, and residents of said town, shall have the same right, upon furnishing a certificate, signed by any responsible person liable to taxation in said town; provided, however, that no family shall have at any one time more than three volumes.

3. No book shall be kept from the Library more than three weeks, at one time, under penalty of two cents per day for each day's detention. The fines for such delay shall, however, at any one time, not be enforced beyond the cost or estimated value of the book. A book may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have remained in the Library one full Library day.

4. All books shall be returned on or before the Saturday next preceding the first Monday of April, annually, whether kept out three weeks or less, under penalty of the cost of any book not so returned.

5. The Librarian shall appraise all damage to books, and collect all fines and damages, subject to the appeal to the Executive Committee; shall withhold the use of the Library from all who neglect or refuse to pay fines or damages.

6. No person, except the Librarian, shall be allowed at any time to take books from the shelves and cases.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth:—

"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving, or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or public library, shall be punished by a fine not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars for every such offence."

The Librarian, however, in his discretion may deliver books at other times, not inconsistent with these regulations.

2. Every inhabitant of Groton, liable to taxation, shall have a right to take books from the Library, and all other persons over twelve years of age, and residents of said town shall have the same right, provided, that no family shall have at any one time more than three cards.

3. No book shall be kept from the Library more than three weeks at one time, under penalty of two cents per day for each day of detention. The fines for such delay shall, however, at any one time, not be enforced beyond the cost or estimated value of the book. A book may be renewed once to the same person, excepting books that have been in the Library less than one year, but not more than once, until it shall have remained in the Library one full Library day.

4. All books shall be returned on or before the Saturday next preceding the first Monday of April, annually, whether kept out three weeks or less, under a penalty of twenty-five cents for each book not so returned.

5. The Librarian shall appraise all damage to books, and collect all fines and damages, subject to appeal to the Executive Committee; shall withhold the use of the Library from all who neglect or refuse to pay fines or damages.

6. Teachers may take books for reference, the number left to the discretion of the Librarian. Teachers shall be responsible for all books so taken, and shall return any such book upon written notification of the Librarian, that the book is desired by another person.

7. Persons non-residents of the town shall have a right to take books from the Library by making a deposit of the book.

8. Borrowers may take two books at the same time, provided that not more than one of these shall be a work of fiction, and that two new books shall not be taken.

Special attention is called to the following law of the Commonwealth:—"Whoever wilfully and maliciously writes upon, injures, defaces, tears, or destroys any book, plate, picture, engraving or statue, belonging to any law, town, city, or public library, shall be punished by a fine not less than five dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars for every such offence."
